

Caroline de Gruyter

is a Europe correspondent and columnist for the Dutch newspaper NRC Handelsblad. She is currently based in Oslo.

She has covered European politics for over twenty years, from Brussels and elsewhere in Europe. She has won several awards. Her voice and expertise about Europe are well-known in The Netherlands and beyond.

Caroline is also a columnist for Foreign Policy, a regular contributor to Carnegie Europe, and a member of the European Council on Foreign Relations. She was previously based in the Gaza strip, Jerusalem, Brussels (twice), Geneva and Vienna. Her fifth book, exploring the parallels and differences between the Habsburg Empire and the European Union, was published in March 2021.

